

Conference Venue

SWINBURNE UNIVERSITY OF TECHNOLOGY SARAWAK CAMPUS (SUTS)

Swinburne University of Technology Sarawak Campus (SUTS) is an Australian branch campus located in Kuching, the capital of Sarawak, which lies on the island of Borneo, the third largest island in the world and is home to many unique species of wildlife. The university boasts state-of-the-art facilities in an urban campus at a strategic location in the state's capital, which is a great mix of modern comforts and natural beauty. You will get the best of both worlds here – the beach, rainforest, mountains, and caves are 30-45 minutes away from the campus, while modern shopping malls and a wide range of food & beverage outlets are within a 5-minute drive. Nearby are local eateries that suit Malaysian, Middle Eastern, and Western tastes. There are also budget, boutique, and international hotel chains in the vicinity.

To discover more about Swinburne University of Technology Sarawak, visit: Swinburne University of Technology | Sarawak | Malaysia

KUCHING, SARAWAK

The largest of Malaysia's states, Sarawak, lies on the island of Borneo, the third largest island in the world. Formerly the land of the White Rajahs, Sarawak has a unique history that makes it one of the most interesting places to visit in Malaysia. City folk can enjoy the historical and traditional sites while others have the chance to explore the natural formations off the beaten track, such as the Pinnacles and the Headhunter's Trail.

The capital city of Sarawak is a charming blend of tradition and modernity. Visitors will enjoy the historical buildings juxtaposed against the modern office blocks and shopping malls. Museums, urban parks, traditional local markets, and heritage buildings are stone's throw from the historic waterfront along the Sarawak River. For those with a sense of adventure, several national parks are just 40 minutes from the city centre. Bako, Gunung Gading, and Kubah National Parks offer jungle trekking experiences in the primary rainforest with waterfalls and natural flora and fauna for those with energy to spare. Sarawak's Cultural Village, the site of the world-famous annual Rainforest Music Festival, is an award-winning living museum a few minutes from Damai Beach. Visitors walk through replica buildings representing every major ethnic group in Sarawak, including Bidayuh, Iban, Orang Ulu longhouses, a Penan jungle settlement, a Melanau tall house, a Malay townhouse, and a Chinese farmhouse and pagoda.

To discover more about Kuching, visit: Kuching \(sarawaktourism.com\)

Transport and Accommodation

TRANSPORTATION

Kuching International Airport is located about 4 km from Kuching's city centre, and about 3 km from Swinburne University of Technology Sarawak Campus. Legitimate transportation services in the form of taxis (regular and large) can be obtained at the airport. Visitors are advised to purchase coupons for legitimate taxi services, and to avoid touts who loiter at the airport. While in Kuching, it is important for visitors to request that taxi drivers use the meter rather than simply offer a price for a ride. Grab, ride-hailing transport services app is also available to/from the conference venue to all locations subject to delegate preference.

To learn more about getting around Sarawak and travel connections, visit:
Sarawak More to Discover \(sarawaktourism.com\)

ACCOMMODATION

Many different types of accommodation are available in Kuching. From budget hostel-style rooms in the Bidayuh Association about 300 meters from the university campus to budget and boutique hotels and international hotel chains, there is clean and decent accommodation available for every participant. Here are a few nearby accommodation options for conference attendees in Kuching:

Citadines Uplands Kuching

(0.5 KM)

56 Hotel

(0.6 KM)

The Waterfront Hotel

(4 KM)

To find out more about hotels in Kuching, visit:
Sarawak More to Discover \(sarawaktourism.com\)